

Confluence

Code of Conduct

Harshavardhan Vijay Moghe

Code of Conduct includes a ruleset for members of the Confluence with duties, obligations and expectations.

Rules

Disciplinary Actions

Rules

Confluence prescribes the first ten rules under five clauses. Each rule is explained overleaf with both right (✓) and wrong (✗) examples.

A	CIVILITY	I	English Use English.	I	✓	Feel free to use conlanging.
					✗	No gibberish.
II			Friendliness Be polite while you can.	II	✓	Be patient till an ongoing conversation is over to start talking on a different topic.
					✗	Do not spam.
B	IMPARTIALITY	III	Respect No discrimination.	III	✓	Address someone by their preferred pronouns.
					✗	No ageism, ableism, sexism, queerphobia, racism and body-shaming.
IV			Neighbourliness Do not compete.	IV	✓	Learn and appreciate one another's ideas and contributions.
					✗	Do not debate just to win.
C	ANSWERABILITY	V	Confidentiality No doxing nor leaking internal contents, inc. recording activities without consent.	V	✓	Ask admin to request discord server partnerships.
					✗	Do not share someone's selfie without consent.
VI			Allegiance Abide by admin's orders in case of disputes.	VI	✓	Use support ticket to escalate complaints about someone's misbehaviour or adverse issues.
					✗	Never, ever, air moderation grievances.
D	SUITABILITY	VII	Decency Keep it SFW.	VII	✓	Feel free to use humour where culturally appropriate.
					✗	No obscenity, vulgarity and profanity.
VIII			Pertinence No personal attacks except on ideas.	VIII	✓	Ask for consent when debating.
					✗	No logical fallacies.
E	RIGOUR	IX	Intelligence Use authentic, up-to-date and peer-reviewed citations if necessary.	IX	✓	Use imagination where reasonable in the absence of factual evidence.
					✗	No sophistry.
X			Sensibility Be open-minded, understand differing viewpoints and synthesise arguments where possible.	X	✓	Do not evade someone's questions in times of debate and argumentation.
					✗	Do not argue for the sake of arguing.

Disciplinary Actions

Admins are variously estate-tiered and vested with the powers to exercise disciplinary actions.

Notice

A forewarning

- Guides newcomers
- Explains and reminds of the rules

Warning

An admonition

- First three unexpired warnings may result in sanctity
- Records accrued misconduct

Sanctity

A timeout

- Restricts access server-wide with possible interrogations
- Failure to answer during the interrogations may incur penalty, departure or relief

Penalty

A dishonour

- Removes all the honours until redeemed
- Redo all the formalities to acquire the same

Departure

An expulsion

- Rejoin, provided one acts in good faith
- For those that depart of their own volition, please contact admin for the former roles

Relief

A ban

- Includes temporary to perpetual reliefs
- Optionally deletes the user's history